Dear Shanay,

You are a National Board Certified Teacher!

At the National Board, we want you to know that we are proud of you for your accomplishment and join you in the celebration. As Board-certified teacher Becky McCormish said in a blog post recently, "There is nothing more rewarding than logging into the National Board's website the day of score release and seeing that congratulations banner." I hope the process proved meaningful to you, as well.
